

T H U R S D A Y, A P R I L 23, 1795.

Many of the articles which had been demanded the French had been provided, and were ready to be furnished, according to the terms of the requisition.

Col. Ramsay, who went over some time ago to Helvoetsdijck with a flag of truce, to inquire into the state of the British sick unavoidably left behind in that place upon the approach of the French, has returned with the most pleasing and satisfactory account of the treatment they receive. They have every comfort and convenience which can be procured for them, and it having been suggested by the physicians of the hospital to the French commandant that some port wine was wanted, he instantly ordered a quantity from Rotterdam for the use of the hospital.

It is not true as has been stated, that our sick are sent into the interior of France. They are only removed from Helvoetsdijck as they recover sufficiently to be removed, for the sake of accommodation in the inland towns, that place being very much crowded by a numerous garrison. The attendants upon the hospital are at present at perfect liberty, and may even return to England when they will.

Col. Ramsay, we understand, spent a week at Helvoetsdijck, and was entertained by the French general in the most polite and hospitable manner.

The Dutch were perfectly sincere in the treaty or agreement which they entered into with captain Shank, previous to his leaving Helvoetsdijck, the conditions of which they hoped to be able to fulfil.

There were French papers at Helvoet down to the 5th inst. That of the 4th contained an account of the arrest of Dubois Cance and another deputy, accused of having been the partners of Robespierre. The system of moderation is carried to as great a height as that of terror ever was.

A fire lately happened at Brest, which the Frenchmen extinguished with the port wine taken in the Oporto fleet. Previous to this it had been selling at ten pounds sterling per pipe.

Feb. 19. An order of council was passed yesterday for laying an embargo upon all vessels in the different ports of this kingdom. This measure is taken previous to the intended mode being adopted of levying men for the navy. This order has been sent to the collectors of the customs at all the ports.

By accounts received yesterday, by a fishing vessel which arrived from Cruzhaven, and brought letters from Hamburg, it is stated, that the Dutch are about to call a convention at Amsterdam, and enter into an alliance offensive and defensive with France.

ADDITIONAL INSTRUCTIONS

To the commanders of our ships of war and privateers, that have or may have letters of marque against France.

Given at our court at St. James's, the day 9th of February, 1795, in the 35th year of our reign.

George R.

I. That they shall bring into the ports of this kingdom all Dutch vessels bound to, or from, any port in Holland, in order that they, together with their cargoes, being Dutch property, may be detained provisionally; and that speedy restitution shall be made of all such cargoes, or parts of cargoes (or the value thereof,) found on board the same, as shall appear to belong to proprietors being the subjects of allied or neutral powers.

II. That they shall bring into the ports of this kingdom all ships, to whatever country they may belong, which shall be found laden with naval or military stores, and bound to any port in Holland, in order that the said cargoes may be detained provisionally; a full indemnification being given by our government to the owners and masters of all such vessels, belonging to the subjects of the allied or neutral powers, as may be brought in, in consequence hereof, and likewise to the proprietors of such cargoes, being subjects of allied or neutral powers.

By his majesty's command,
PORTLAND.

NEW YORK, April 13.

The corporation of the city of Salisbury have addressed his Britannic majesty on the subject of peace.

Fifty of the inhabitants of Liverpool addressed the mayor of that city, requesting a general meeting to be called to consider of the propriety of addressing the king, on the same subject. This request was opposed by another signed by 200 inhabitants; in consequence of which the mayor declined calling the meeting.

The impressing of sea and land men for the navy had recommenced with great vigour. A number of the merchants of Liverpool had declared a preference of a general embargo being laid on their outward bound trade, to the taking seamen out of their vessels, which must have a partial operation.

PHILADELPHIA, April 16.

Extract of a letter received per captain Grant, from a gentleman in St. Eustatia, to Mr. Lechius Clarkson, merchant, in this city, dated 1st April.

The English have declared war against the Dutch, and have granted letters of marque and reprisals; one has already produced her commission at St. Kitt's. The Dutch have acknowledged the sovereignty of the French, granted one and a half million sterling to prosecute the war, to supply large quantities of clothing for the army, and to fit out 32 sail of the line, and 9 frigates.

The negroes have retaken St. Lucia, except the fort of Morne Fortune, taken Grenada, except Richmond hill and town, have rose in a body at St. Vincent's, and are fighting there in a dreadful manner; and in neither of the English and Dutch islands do the inhabitants go to bed without the fear of death before morning. Such is the present situation of these colonies, and you must be persuaded the prospect is not very tempting to silk property at present. All those who had goods here last week removed to St. Thomas's, and St. Bartholomew's, fearing the attack of the French, and this week we are expelling the attack of the English—Yesterday an English frigate was here, and it was supposed the came to demand the island.

MARTINSBURG, April 4.

A gentleman who left Lexington, Kentucky, on the 3d ult. and who passed through this town a few days since, informed us, that the latest accounts from general Wayne were of the most agreeable nature—the army in comfortable quarters, healthy, and well supplied, with provision—no interruption from the enemy, except at intervals by feathering Indians who appeared to be hunting—and a general opinion prevailing that peace would take place the ensuing autumn, information having been received that the chiefs of all the nations now at war, were determined on attending the treaty to be held in June next with general Wayne—May they appear with the olive branch undisguised, and smoke the pipe of eternal friendship.

It is conjectured, from the preparation making in different parts of this country, that the emigrations to Kentucky this season, will exceed all former years.

ANNAPOLIS, April 23.

Capt. Glad, of the brig Goddess of Liberty, arrived at New-York from Nantes, which place he left the 19th February, informs, that the Algerines are out of the Straits. That it was reported at Nantes, that the British fleet of 35 sail had departed for the Mediterranean to liberate the Toulon fleet which was blocked up by the English and Spanish squadrons in those seas.

ADJUTANT-GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Annapolis, March 20, 1795.

GENERAL ORDERS.

THE commander in chief of the militia of the State of Maryland orders, that there be a full and complete return of all the militia of this state, made and delivered to the adjutant-general, on or before the 20th day of June next, and that the said return shall be agreeable to the form directed by the adjutant-general.

J. KILTY (acting by deputation) for
HENRY CARBERRY Adj. Gen.

As regimental or battalion meetings cannot conveniently be obtained at this early season of the year, it is intended that company returns shall form the groundwork of the proposed operation. For these, as well as for regimental returns, blank forms, with every necessary instruction for filling them, will shortly be furnished from the office. They will be transmitted, (agreeably to a direction of the commander in chief annexed to the above order) to the commanding officers of divisions, under whose orders they will be distributed; together with such arrangements as those officers may think proper to form for a due and timely execution of the business.

JOHN KILTY, for
HENRY CARBERRY, Adj. Gen.

NOTICE.

THE subscriber takes this method of informing the public, and his friends in general, that he has lately obtained the management of the lower Patuxent ferry, formerly belonging to PARCELL'S MISTRESS, deceased; he has provided himself with good and sufficient boats, together with able and experienced ferrymen. Those persons who may wish to cross the ferry, may rest assured of being conveyed with great dispatch, and every exertion will be made by the subscriber, in order to give general satisfaction.

WILLIAM STEPHENSON.
April 22, 1795.

LA FAYETTE

It is high order, and will stand this season at the subscriber's stable, in Annapolis, two days in each week, Mondays and Tuesdays, and at Mr. Thomas Bicknell's, near the Head of South river, on Wednesdays, Thursdays, Fridays, and Saturdays.

LA FAYETTE is a bright furred, handsomely marked with white in the face and legs, six years old this spring, fifteen and an half hands high, he is handsomely formed, and equal in to bone, sinew and action, to most horses bred in America; he was got by the noted elegant horse VANETIAN, his dam was got by LITTLE FRODO, out of a fine imported mare, whose pedigree is unknown.

La Fayette will cover mares at one guinea a single mare, or two mares, or more from the same person, four dollars per mare, and three shillings and ninepence to the groom, provided the money is paid by first of July; if the money is not paid by the first of July next six dollars per mare will be charged. Good pasturage, under good fencing, may be had for mares at Mr. Bicknell's.

JAMES WILLIAMS.

April 14, 1795.

WANTED,

Without Delay.

A STRONG, stout, substantial, and faithfully built BOAT, of either mulberry, cedar, or well seasoned white oak for the frame.—The length of keel between 28 and 32 feet, the beam 12 or 13 feet, in the hold about three feet nine inches to four feet, and of a very handsome model.—If the craft or boat be well appraised it would be the more agreeable, but by no means an inadmissible objection. Inquire of the printers.

March 23, 1795.

NOTICE

IS hereby given, that I shall apply to the next county court, which is to be held in Queen-Anne's county, to have commissioners appointed to ascertain the beginning of a tract of land called ANDERSON, lying on Kent Island, in Queen-Anne's county aforesaid.

PEREGRINE FITZHUGH.

JUST PUBLISHED,

And to be SOLD at this PRINTING-OFFICE,
STUEBEN'S
MILITARY EXERCISE.

TO WHICH IS ADDED,
THE ACT TO REGULATE AND DISCIPLINE THE MILITIA OF THIS STATE.

STATE OF DELAWARE, &c.

BY virtue of an order of the orphans court, held at Dover, in and for the county of Kent, on the tenth day of December, Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four, will be EXPOSED TO SALE, by way of PUBLIC VENDUE, on Monday the fourth day of May next, on the premises,

ALL that tract or parcel of land, situate in Mardick hundred, in the county aforesaid; containing in the whole about one thousand five hundred acres, being the property of BENEDICT BAICE, deceased, at the time of his death, and to be sold for the payment of his debts. For the accommodation of those who may incline to purchase, the said land will be laid off in three divisions, with a sufficient quantity of woodland to each division; the terms of sale to be as follow, one third of the purchase money to be paid in one year from the day of sale, one third in two years, and the remaining third in three years, with interest, on the respective payments from the day of sale. Attendance will be given, and further particulars made known, by MARY COOK, administratrix of the said deceased.

By order of the court,
SIPPLE WHARTON, Clk.

December 10, 1794.

JAMES WHARFE,

BEGET leave to inform his friends, and the public in general, that he has taken and entered upon that well known INN and TAVERN, in the city of Annapolis, (generally known by the name of MANN'S TAVERN) together with the stables, furniture, &c. where he is determined to conduct the business with the greatest assiduity and attention. This, as a house of entertainment, is justly celebrated all over the United States for the elegant accommodations it affords whilst under the management of Mr. Mann; and, as the present possessor, from his knowledge of the business, and an ample supply of every thing requisite, flatters himself, that the gentlemen, who shall honour him with their company, will experience equally good treatment. He has added to the stock on hand a quantity of genuine wine, spirituous liquors, &c. all chosen with the greatest care, and provided himself with the best cooks and waiters. His tables are attended by experienced and careful waiters, and in every respect well furnished.

Annapolis, March 27, 1795.

Who committed to my custody, on the 24th day of March last, on a charge, a runaway negro man who calls himself HARRY HOLMES, and says he belongs to and is the property of Baltimore county, and that he was sold to and bought by Mr. John Holmes, of Baltimore county; he is about five feet nine or ten inches high, is a very amiable fellow and very talkative, has a violin with him which he is remarkable fond of playing on; he is pretty much marked by the small pox. His mother is desired to take him away and pay charges, to

JOSEPH GREEN, Sheriff of Charles county.

April 3, 1795.

DON PEDRO,

A large JACK ASS,

(Got by the PATRIDENT'S SPANISH JACK ASS, ROYAL GIFT).

STANDS this season at the subscribers plantation, near West river; and will cover mares at thirty-five shillings each, the money to be paid by the first day of September next. Good pasturage for mares that come a distance gratis, and great care will be taken of them, but will not be liable for escapes or accidents.

April 1, 1795.

JACOB FRANKLIN.

Eight Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the Head of South river, a negro man named FRANK, about 38 years old, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, raw-boned, of a yellowish complexion, cross-eyed, and has a large wart on the corner of his right eye, he is very talkative, and a great snuffer; had on when he went away, a leamoth coat, white kersey jacket, old gray halfthick breeches, much worn, a felt hat almost new, white yarn stockings, and old shoes with nails in them; he took with him a coarse white blanket and an old green rug, two olivabrig shirts, much worn; he some time ago contended for his freedom by the name of Jackson, but did not obtain it; it is likely he may get a pass and endeavour to pass as a free man, and may change his clothing. Whoever takes up the said negro, and secures him so that I get him again, shall receive if taken ten miles from home TWENTY SHILLINGS, if twenty miles FORTY SHILLINGS, and if out of the state the above reward, paid by ELIZABETH GARY, or WILLIAM HAYES, on the North side of Severn.

N. B. All masters of vessels are forewarned taking him off at their peril.

THOMAS STINCHCOMB.

April 4, 1795.

and away from the subscriber, being with the name of JOHN BICKNELL, on the 24th day of March last, on a charge, a runaway negro man who calls himself HARRY HOLMES, and says he belongs to and is the property of Baltimore county, and that he was sold to and bought by Mr. John Holmes, of Baltimore county; he is about five feet nine or ten inches high, is a very amiable fellow and very talkative, has a violin with him which he is remarkable fond of playing on; he is pretty much marked by the small pox. His mother is desired to take him away and pay charges, to

JOSEPH GREEN, Sheriff of Charles county.

DAVID, the property of NATHANIEL EWING, aged about twenty-one years, five feet seven inches high, of a dark complexion, well made, has a burn on one of his arms near the shoulder, a sharp nose, and on when he went away, a dark coloured cloth coat, white breeches, Irish linen shirt, old boots, a new hat with a black ribbon around the crown, other clothes uncertain.

CHARLES, the property of CORNELIUS WILDMAN, aged about twenty-five years, five feet seven inches high, dark complexion, down looking fellow, thick lips, had on when he went away, a cotton and woolen country coat, a striped silk jacket, a pair of white breeches and stockings, a new wool hat with a ribbon around it. It is probable that these fellows will attempt to get to Pennsylvania, as David has once been there with his master; it is also apprehended that they may have supplied themselves with pass either from some ill designing white person, or that George has contrived to execute some kind of passes himself, as he can read writing, and also write some little. We are likewise of opinion they may endeavour to pass by the name of Butler, as George had some time in his possession before he went off a pass granted to CLYM BUTLER, who was a free negro, from which it is likely he might take copies. Whoever takes up and secures said negro slaves in any goal, so that their masters may get them again, shall receive TWENTY-FOUR DOLLARS, including what the law allows, for the three negroes, or the sum of EIGHT DOLLARS, also including what the law allows, for either of them.

JOHN EDELEY,
NATHANIEL EWING,
CORNELIUS WILDMAN.

April 11, 1795.

REPUBLICAN,

It is high order, and will stand this season at the subscriber's farm, near Road river.

REPUBLICAN is a fine blood bay, handsomely marked, fifteen hands high, and elegantly formed, seven years old this season, he was out of Doct. Hamilton's noted mare HARMONY, and got by Mr. Curran's Badger, and is full blooded; he will cover mares at four dollars the single mare, or if two mares or more from the same person, twenty five shillings, provided the money is paid by the first of August next, but if the money is not then paid, six dollars per mare will be charged. Good pasturage, under good fencing, may be had for mares.

THOMAS COWMAN.

April 20, 1795.

LOFTY,

AN imported full bred hunter, will stand this season, to cover mares, at the subscriber's on Greenbury-point.

LOFTY is rising four years old, was imported from England this last winter, is full sixteen hands high, a beautiful sorrel, with a star and snip, and one hind foot white, free from blemish, with strength, bone, sinew, and action, superior to any horse of his age ever imported, (generally allowed) and from his powers, great size, symmetry, and elegance, promises him to improve our much degenerate breed of horses. Lofty will cover mares to the last of July at two guineas the single mare, and half a dollar to the groom, the money to be sent with the mares, or paid by the last of July, if longer credit, three guineas each mare, and half a dollar to the groom. Good pasturage at half a dollar per week, and the greatest care taken, but will not be liable for escapes or accidents.

JOHN MITCHELL.

P. S. The horse's pedigree to be seen at his stand, Greenbury-point, April 20, 1795.

The Prince of Orange,

STANDS this season at the subscriber's plantation, near the governor's bridge, and will cover mares at the moderate rate of 25/- per mare, if paid by the first day of August, or two barrels of Indian corn, delivered at my house by the first day of December next; he is a dark bay sorrel, now five years old, and rising sixteen hands high, with much strength, bone, and activity, he was got by Old Carleth, out of an imported mare, which was imported by Colonel Taylor, and known by the name of Kitty Fisher, and was sold to Chatham Fitzhugh for one hundred and fifty guineas. Good pasturage at 3/- per week, but will not be answerable for escapes or other accidents.

WILLIAM CHAPMAN.

April 18, 1795.

THIS is to give notice to all persons who have claims against the estate of THOMAS HYDE, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, to bring them in legally authenticated, and all those who are to any manner indebted to said estate are requested to make payment, to

Executrix of THOMAS HYDE, or to
FRANCIS T. CLEMENTS.

Annapolis, April 15, 1795.

TAKEN up as a stray, by the subscriber, living in Prince-George's county, a small bay Horse, about thirteen and an half hands high, supposed to be seven years old, has a small star in his forehead, switch tail, and hanging mane, blood all round, and shows the marks of the draught, trots and gallops. The owner may have him again on proving property and paying charges.

JOHN H. BEANES.

Picataway, March 21, 1795.

HIGH FLYER.

The property of JOHN CRAGGS, stands to cover this season, at South river ferry 4 miles from Annapolis.

HIGH FLYER is near sixteen hands high, a blood bay with one white foot and star, and for strength, bone, finew and action, is superior to any full blooded horse ever imported; he was bred by Mr. Tatterfall, got by his High Flyer, which covered mares in 1793 at thirty guineas each mare, and one guinea to the groom, at Ely in Cambridgeshire. High Flyer was got by Herod, his dam, which was the dam of Mark Anthony, by Blank, his grand-dam by Regulus, his great-grand-dam by Sore Heels, which mare was the dam of Matchless, South and Danby Cade, great-grand-dam by Makeless, which was Sir Ralph Millbank's famous black mare, which was the dam of Hartly's blind horse Thistle; the dam of John Cragg's High Flyer was got by Syphon out of Young Cade's filer; Syphon was got by Squirt, which got Mark and many other good horses; Young Cade's filer was got by old Cade, his dam by Partner, grand-dam of Mr. Van's Little Partner, and great-grand-dam of Bandy by Makeless, Brimmer, Place's White Turk, great-grand-dam of Cartouch, Dodsworth, Layton barb mare; this bay horse called High Flyer, got by my High Flyer out of Thistle, was bred by me,

RICHARD TATTERSALL.

I gave £. 2500 for High Flyer, and £. 2500 for Rlespe, which was got by High Flyer.

RICHARD TATTERSALL.

London, September 12, 1792.

P. S. High Flyer will cover mares from the second week in April, and will cover mares to the last week in July, and no longer; three guineas, and a dollar to the groom, will be taken if sent with the mares or paid by the end of June, if longer credit is expected, five guineas each mare, and a dollar to the groom. Pasturage will be provided for mares, but will not be liable for escapes or other accidents.

JOHN CRAGGS.

Any gentleman bring diffident of this horse's pedigree, may see the original, signed by Mr. Tatterfall, by making application to me.

PROPOSALS, For a NEWS-PAPER.

THE subscribers beg leave to inform their friends, and the public in general, that, having procured the new and elegant apparatus, lately imported from Europe, by Mr. JOHN HAYES, they intend publishing a daily news-paper, under the title of The Baltimore Telegraph.

It is proposed to publish this paper every morning, (Sundays excepted) on a larger and more extensive scale, than any heretofore attempted in the State of Maryland. The name will indicate the intention of the editors, that like the new machine, lately invented in France, it may communicate the earliest and most interesting intelligence.

That this publication may be rendered agreeable to their friends and patrons, the editors beg leave to lay before them an idea of their plan.

I. As it is of great importance to the people, to be regularly informed of the operations of the general government, a certain portion of this paper will be appropriated to the debates of congress, the laws and all interesting reports proceeding from that body, and from the officers of state, so as to exhibit a connected view of their deliberations.

II. They will duly notice matters that are interesting to the United States, such as the progress of manufactures, agriculture, commercial enterprises, useful undertakings and institutions, debates and proceedings of the national convention of France, and of the British parliament, with many other affairs from the most accredited foreign prints, which may appear worthy of insertion.

III. Interesting foreign and domestic publications shall be frequently announced, and copious extracts given of their contents, either from the works themselves, or from the most impartial reviewers or critics; their design being, not only to render this paper an early notice of news, but also a magazine of useful and entertaining knowledge.

IV. With respect to essays of every description, they will be guided by one general rule, founded on the freedom of the press, which they conceive ought only to extend to public characters; and therefore, they particularly oblige themselves, to reject all pieces which contain invectives against private citizens, or reflections that might, in any manner, injure their reputation, or occasion what is termed a news-paper war.

These general sketches of their design are submitted to the consideration of the public, from whom they solicit that support, which it shall be their constant study to merit.

Having been encouraged in this business, by a very respectable number of the inhabitants of this town, they flatter themselves, that The Baltimore Telegraph will soon have a general and extensive circulation, and thereby become useful to merchants, country traders, and others, as an advertising paper. The elegance and beauty of their type will undoubtedly claim the public approbation; and they are determined to execute all business intrusted to their care, with neatness and accuracy.

The first number will be published early in March, on a super-royal sheet, the size of Mr. Brown's Philadelphia Gazette, at seven dollars per annum, and regularly forwarded to country subscribers, agreeably to orders, with all possible expedition and care.

The situation of public affairs, both in Europe and America, renders the present period truly interesting to every freeman; we therefore presume, that a publication intended for the support of republican principles, which may contain a judicious selection of the most important events, cannot fail of being very acceptable to our fellow-citizens.

Handbills, cards, blanks, circular letters, &c. printed on the shortest notice, at the new printing-office, Baltimore, by Hogerty, Rice, Clarke and Keddie, Keatinge, Cole, Thomas, Andrews and Butler, and by the publishers, in Baltimore.

Three Pounds Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, near SAMUEL RAWLING'S tavern, a negro man named JACK, dark complected, twenty-five years old, about five feet eight inches high, inclining to fat, with large eyes and pleasant countenance; had on when he went away, a dark fawn-coloured jacket, with ebony cloth breeches mixed with yellow and black, white yarn stockings, and common negro shoes. Whoever takes up and secures the said negro, so that his mistress gets him again, shall receive the above reward, and if brought home on reasonable charges, paid by PROPOSALS, For a NEW NEWS-PAPER, ENTITLED Fell's-Point Telegraph, TO THE PUBLIC.

WHEN the present high price of subscriptions to the established news-papers in Baltimore is considered, the necessity of one at a more moderate expense, may be strikingly evident. There are few persons in the State of Maryland, unless in the commercial towns, who would wish, or can conveniently afford to pay a subscription of six or seven dollars per annum, together with the expense of postage; and when the great and acknowledged usefulness of these kind of publications is taken into view, there is every reason to expect, that the present undertaking will meet with the general patronage and encouragement of our discerning citizens. To accommodate, therefore, our readers, in every rank and description of society, it is proposed to publish the Fell's-Point Telegraph at the low price of TWO AND AN HALF DOLLARS per annum, which is to be paid half yearly in advance. And that it may not be defective in communicating any article of interesting intelligence, it will be published as often as the post arrives, three times a week, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, when it will be delivered to subscribers at the Point and in Town, and immediately forwarded, agreeably to order, to those in the country.

It will be printed on good paper, and of a quarto size; and the editor is determined to spare no pains to render it a useful, instructive, and entertaining paper. For this purpose, he will make the best selection in his power from all the American and European prints, and should any thing important or interesting appear in any of the Baltimore papers, his friends may also be assured, that it will be inserted in the TELEGRAPH.

As there can be no doubt but this cheap and useful paper will find a ready circulation in every part of the State of Maryland, a work of this kind being so much wanted, it is presumed it will claim its share of the advertising business. The editor, advantageously situated on Fell's-Point, will be easily enabled to procure every article of ship news, and be early acquainted with the arrival of every species of merchandise, which he will communicate to the public. He therefore solicits his friends and the public for their advertising custom; and he trusts that their advertisements will be printed correctly, and judiciously displayed.

Original essays, both moral and political, authentic accounts of marriages, deaths, and other casualties, will be received with gratitude, and meet with due attention. And here, he thinks it necessary to remark, that it is his fixed determination, to conduct the Telegraph on free and rational principles:—Averse to party purposes, no interest or emolument whatever, will influence him to disturb the peace of domestic tranquillity, by publishing anonymous slander, or malevolence against individuals in the private walks of life.

The public's very humble

And obedient servant,

J. W. ALLEN.

Baltimore, January 20.

N. B. It is intended, should a sufficient number of subscribers appear by the 23d day of February ensuing, that the first No. of Fell's-Point Telegraph shall be published on that day.

SUBSCRIPTIONS are received by Mr. John Pamel, captains James and Joseph Blays, captain Thomas Moore, captain Peter Sharp, and Mr. Job Smith, at Fell's-Point; by Messrs. Clarke and Keddie, Mr. John Hagerty, and Messrs. Thomas, Andrews and Butler, bookellers; and Messrs. Yundt and Brown, and Mr. Philip Edwards, printers, Baltimore-town, and Messrs. F. and S. Green, Annapolis.

RAN AWAY on the second instant, a negro man named DANIEL, thirty years of age, five feet eight or nine inches high, stoops in his walking, and is very perky in his manner of speaking; his legs are remarkable small, and feet very long and narrow for one of his size; his wool is short; had on when he made his escape a round hat, painted or tarred, a short fawn-coloured grey waistcoat, a pair of brown breeches, grey yellow shoes, and a pair of white yarn stockings. He is artful and an old offender, having been two years ago on a trip of the kind, and then taken at Mr. Johnson's, near Elk-Ridge Landing, and committed to the goal of Baltimore-town. It is expected that he will assume the Butler name, or some other family of negroes who, within a few years, recovered their freedom, and will endeavour to pass as such. A reward of TWENTY DOLLARS will be paid for taking him; so that he be had again, if thirty miles from home; or FIVE POUNDS, if taken a less distance, or in the neighbourhood.
